

Other Important People

...that we interact with on campus

- Kevin Shull

Kevin Shull

Kevin organizes almost every music event and when you can actually find him he's probably talking out loud about the next thing he has to do as he runs off to that next big thing. He is determined, outspoken, and really passionate about what he does. If he isn't running around he's probably bickering with Kerri about festival operations like an old married couple.

We will often be interacting with him during music department events and performances in the hall.
